County Schools Not
To Close Thursday

It was not deemed advisable to grant the half holiday in the county schools, according to Supt. B. A. Fowler. Due to the fact that the students have been out in harvest work for two full weeks in October, and many afternoons since on the "morning attendance and afternoon harvest" arrangement, it is thought necessary to hold school throughout the day on November 11th. Supt. Fowler has recommended, however, that appropriate exercises be held in the schools to commemorate the great event of the culmination of the world war, and to keep fresh in the memory of the youth of today, the significant part America played in this struggle.

SALT LAKE GIRL HELD IN BANK ROBBERY CASE

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 10.—Mrs.
Mildred Johnson of New York, and Miss Helen Gray, alias Spot, alias Rockwell of Salt Lake, were indicted by the grand jury Tuesday charged with receiving stolen property.
Mrs. Johnson is the mother of Albert Johnson, alias Joyce, who was killed while attempting to rob a bank at Bedford, Ohio, October 26, and Miss Gray is supposed to have been his sweetheart.

Don't Buy
Doubtful Stocks

We advise the following investigation before purchase:

Is the money that I put into the proposition absolutely safe?
Is it a security that I can sell readily and quickly and without loss if I need the money?
Is it a security upon which banks would lend me money?
Is the management of the company honest?
Assuming it is honest, is the management qualified by previous experience to conduct the business successfully and profitably?
Is the article to be manufactured one for which there is a real demand?

Assuming that there is a real demand, is the company able to market this in a manner to return a reasonable profit?
How does the probable rate of interest or dividend compare with absolutely safe investments that I could make?

Have I taken the word of the seller or have I investigated sufficiently to know the proposition thoroughly?

BUY FOOD FOR
KIN IN EUROPE

Ogdenites Take Advantage of American Relief Food
Draft Plan

Ogden citizens who have relatives in sections of Europe where the food situation has not yet recovered from the effects of the war, are responding generously to the efforts of the American Relief administration in supplying individuals and organizations with supplies by the food draft plan.

W. A. Budge of the Security State bank, which is the only bank in Ogden to supply these food drafts, said that several hundred dollars have been sent from Ogden to individuals in Europe, the majority going to Germany.
Sixty-nine food drafts have been issued in Ogden in the short time the plan has been in existence.

With the approach of the Christmas season, the administration is offering additional articles of food for the packages, with no increase in price.

Heretofore a food draft for $10 would buy 2½ pounds of flour, 10 pounds of rice, 3 pounds of bacon and 8 cans of milk, or 2½ pounds of flour, 10 pounds of rice, 7½ pounds of cottonseed oil and 12 cans of milk.
Additions to these $10 packages are 2 1-5 pounds of sugar and 1 pound of cocoa.

The fifty-dollar packages included: 14 pounds of flour, 50 pounds of rice, 15 pounds of bacon, 15 pounds of lard, 12 pounds of corned beef, 48 cans of milk, or 140 pounds of flour, 50 pounds of rice, 45 pounds of cottonseed oil and 48 cans of milk. To these packages are added, 13 pounds of sugar and 3 1-3 pounds of cocoa.

Many of the children born during the war have never tasted candy or sweets of any kind and the addition of sugar will supply a want for this article long felt.

These food drafts may be purchased at the local bank and forwarded to friends or relatives in Austria, Germany, Hungary, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

Recipients of the drafts will receive the food packages upon presentation at any of the American relief association warehouses at Vienna, Hamburg, Budapest, Warsaw or Prague for the respective countries.

Purchasers will be notified when the food has been delivered.
The American Relief administration is under the direction of Herbert Hoover. The food draft plan has been in operation since February, and during this time 160,000 food drafts have been sold, representing $4,500,000 worth of American food.

Mr. Budge said he is ready any time to explain in detail the operations of the food draft plan. He may be seen at the Security State bank.

The physicians and surgeons point out that the "splendid management of the Thomas D. Dee Memorial hospital" has caused the use of that hospital by people of four states "until the capacity of that hospital is constantly overtaxed, though the sickness rate has not increased." They declare that the only means of remedying this condition is to immediately finance and build the proposed hospital to be conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Cross.

This letter of the medical society, together with other phases of the hospital plans, will be considered at a meeting of the Ogden hospital committee, which has been called by Chairman A. P. Bigelow for this evening at the Weber club rooms. The letter follows:

"To the Public of Ogden and Vicinity:
The members of the Weber County Medical Society desire to go on record as favoring the immediate establishment in Ogden of additional hospital facilities and as especially endorsing the plan for the building of another hospital in the immediate future.
We feel that there is need for this new hospital and that the people of Ogden and vicinity will give thorough support to the plan upon realizing its necessity. Because of the very splendid management of the Thomas D. Dee Memorial hospital, the people of Ogden and of the great territory adjoining—even of eastern Nevada, southern Idaho and western Wyoming—have availed themselves of hospital facilities in cases of illness and injuries until the capacity of that hospital is constantly overtaxed, though the sickness rate has not increased.
Of course the only way to remedy such a condition is to provide further facilities. Two hospitals in Ogden, thoroughly co-operating, can make this provision. We have one excellent hospital now, the one that is planned—to be conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Cross—will add the other.
The people of Ogden and vicinity, realizing this need, can certainly be depended upon to meet the situation and thus add an institution which from humanitarian standpoints as well as other points, will be of the greatest value to the community.
—E. C. RICH, M. D., President.
—WALTER E. WHALEN, M. D., Secretary-Treasurer."

Three Twins' Rehearsal
Postponed to Friday

On account of the general celebration in connection with Armistice day tomorrow, Bob Major, director of the "Three Twins" production announced today that the rehearsal scheduled for tomorrow will be deferred until Friday evening. At that time he wants every member of the cast in attendance because he says the show will be run through from beginning to end.

'LISTEN LESTER'
MUCH ENJOYED

Large Audience Highly Pleased With Musical Entertainment at Orpheum

Listen, Lester, or "Bill or Dick or Mable—if you want to get some first class theatrical enjoyment go and see "Listen Lester" at the Orpheum theatre tonight.

The production was presented last night before a large audience and everybody in that audience had a good time, laughing till their tummies ached.

Fred Heider is the star of the production and it is doubtful if Ogden ever was visited by a comedian who was quite so versatile. Everything he did provoked laughter.

Then there was Miss June Roberts, pretty and chic, and she danced so wonderfully and gracefully that everybody sat back in their chairs and marveled.

Among the other leading lights of the production are Miss Bettie Kirk-bride, who plays the role of Arbutus Quilly, "a good baby in the daytime, but a bad baby at night," Delana Bell, as Lester's wife, the hotel porter who is a comedian, dancer and pantomimist of rare abilities; Earl Higley, a rollypolly gentleman who plays Colonel Lodge, a gay old fellow; Miss Claire Grenville, the stately widow, and Francis X. Donegan, the finance, who could sing and dance.

Pretty girls, colorful costumes, a harmonious quartette with great volume, whistleable music and fine stage settings were some of the other features which provoked considerable comment last night.

Altogether "Listen Lester" meets all requirements for musical entertainment, moving rapidly from one good thing to another and causing the two and one-half hours to move along in record breaking time.

PLAN ECONOMY
SHOP AT SCHOOL

Mound Fort Association Plans To Look After Older Boys of District

With a view to raising funds to establish an evening class in manual training for boys and also to provide good milk for students who must take lunches to school, the Mound Fort association of the Mound Fort school will conduct an "economy shop" at the Mound Fort school the evening of Friday, November 19, and on the following day, also.

Mrs. Esther V. Whitaker, president of the association outlined the project today.

"We are asking the students of the Mound Fort school district to bring to the school those articles for which their parents have no further use, but articles which are still of use to others and have a monetary value.
These articles will be placed on sale in our economy shop which will be established at the school. With the funds from the sale of these articles we plan to establish a class in manual training for older boys or even men if they are interested. We have found there are many young men interested in this work who find time drags heavily on their hands in the evenings.
Such a class might keep many of them out of mischief. Our present plans call for such a class two nights each week."

Then we also hope to have enough in the fund so that we can obtain milk to be served to boys and girls who must eat their noon meal at school from a lunch box.

"All persons who live north of the bridge are in the Mound Fort school district and all are invited to assist.
If there are persons in other school districts who have articles they would care to contribute to our economy shop, we shall take steps to collect them if they call me at my home, telephone 2878-M."

Tercentenary to Be Observed At Ogden Library Tuesday Night

The three hundredth anniversary of the signing of the Mayflower Compact will be observed at the Carnegie Free Library on Thursday evening, November 11, by a series of twelve tableaux, in which many children who are library patrons will appear.

The tableaux are arranged in a sequence, showing the Indians before the white men came, the signing of the Mayflower Compact, the landing of the Pilgrims, scenes from Pilgrim life, Pocahontas and John Smith, the first Thanksgiving with a closing scene showing the arrival of the pioneers in Salt Lake Valley.

A program of appropriate music and readings has been arranged, and the children's tableaux promises to be both unique and interesting.

The library staff has been most ably assisted by Miss Rosalind Reiman, of the Community Service bureau.

A general invitation is extended to all, no admission being charged. The library will be closed for the issue of

Pilgrim Tercentenary
In Schools of County

the landing of the pilgrims in America will be fittingly observed this autumn in the schools of the county.

At a recent institute of teachers of the county, Supt. B. A. Fowler discussed the importance of the coming of these pilgrims to the western hemisphere, and the founding of the great American nation. He appointed a committee of teachers and supervisors to devise ways and means to impress upon the children of school age the significance of their achievement. The committee is as follows:

Nellie Hendricks, chairman; Robert W. Major, Grace Bagley, George B.
Fowler, Albert J. Powell, Emma Johnson, Mabel Chappell.

Historical sketches, stories, poems and pageants will feature the celebration to be held Dec. 21, 1920.
